North
0 1 2 Kilometers
0 1 2 Miles
The Lee vs. Grant driving route, highlighting aspects of Ulysses S. Grant's 1864 Overland Campaign, begins at Germanna Ford. It is part of the Virginia Civil War Trails, a network of driving tours linking Civil War sites in Virginia.
Battle of the Wilderness
May 5-6, 1864
Grant's Headquarters
Wilderness Battlefield Exhibit Shelter
Saunders Field
Higgerson Farm
Chewning Farm
Tapp Field
Longstreet's Wounding
Brock Road-Plank Road Intersection
Jackson's Flank Attack
Battle of Chancellorsville
April 27-May 6, 1863
Chancellorsville Battlefield Visitor Center
Bullock House Site
Chancellor House Site
Fairview
Hazel Grove
Slocum's Line
McLaws's Line
Lee-Jackson Bivouac
Catharine Furnace Ruins
Unfinished Civil War railroad trace
Battle of Salem Church
May 3-4, 1863
Old Salem Church
Battle of Fredericksburg
December 11-13, 1862
Fredericksburg Battlefield Visitor Center
Lee's Hill
Howison Hill
Union Breakthrough
Prospect Hill
Pelham Marker
Hamilton's Crossing
Battle of Spotsylvania Court House
May 8-21, 1864
Bloody Angle
McCoull House Site
East Face of Salient
Upton's Road
Harrison House
Heth's Salient
Spotsylvania Battlefield Exhibit Shelter
Spotsylvania Confederate Cemetery
Spotsylvania County Museum
SPOTSYLVANIA
Stonewall Jackson Shrine
Stonewall Jackson Shrine
Hopewell Church
GUINEA
FALMOUTH
FREDERICKSBURG
Chatham
Phillips House site (Burnside's Headquarters)
RAPPAHANNOCK RIVER
RAPIDAN RIVER
Tour stop
Route connecting park areas
Park property
Scenic easement
Land authorized for future park acquisition
Picnic area
Interpretive trail
Lee vs. Grant driving tour roadside marker
The possession or use of metal detectors on
Roadside markers contain information to help you