Voices of the Pacific Narrative Rubric

Content
It is clear why the writer has chosen to depict the event(s)
It is evident that the writer understands how to use concrete, significant detail
It is evident that the writer understands how to use image
The writer's use of concrete significant details and images are consistent with World War II in the Pacific
It is evident that the writer understands how to use voice to portray a specific time/place
The writer uses voice in a way that is consistent with the individual they have chosen
It is evident that the writer has included information from the museum
Follows Guidelines/Format
The writer uses first person point of view
The writer uses paragraph breaks appropriately
The assignment meets the page requirement
The assignment follows standards for font, spacing, and margins
Grammar, Mechanics & Sentence structure
The writer has proofread for errors in sentence structure
The writer has proofread for errors in punctuation
The writer has proofread for spelling errors
The writer has proofread for typographical errors
Drafting/Peer Review
The writer has made significant revisions based on peer review feedback
The writer has provided quality feedback on their partner's paper
Total	