Climate Friendly Family

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

uses compact fluorescent lightbulbs that require 75% less electricity and last 15 times longer than incandescents.

Climate Friendly Family

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

reduces its water usage with low-flow toilets that require less electricity to pump water and waste.

Climate Friendly Family

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

recycles and reduces the amount of waste going into the local landfills.

Climate Friendly Family

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

uses solar panels to convert sunlight into electricity. Power plants account for over 1/3 of greenhouse gases.

Climate Friendly Family

Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park

uses waterless urinals that save electricity by eliminating the need to pump and treat water.