What J.F.K Means To Me

John Fitzgerald Kennedy was born on May 29, 1917 in Brookline, Massachusetts. J.F.K was also called Jack. Jack went to the Edward Devotion School and the Dexter School. Jack was one of the youngest presidents of the U.S.A. I think Jack was brave all through his life.

Jack competed against his brother Joe jr. alot. Once they had a bike race and who ever jumped off was a chicken. No one jumpel and they crashed. Joe jr. was fine but Jack needed 28 stitches. Jack was in the U.S. Navy and saved a crew member after a Japenese destroyer cut the P.T.109 in half. Jack had to swim for 5 hours. Jack met with M.L.K and other people to stop segregation. He created a civil rights bill that didn't get passed until Jack died. These are the examples that show that Jack was brave.

I chose to write about this part of Jack's life because he did alot of dangerous things and came back alive and fine.

One of the things I'm scared of is the haunted house basement. If I go again I'll close my eyes. I've learned that if something's scary, it can still be a ok.
