Hampton

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Hampton National Historic Site

March 23 & April 26, 2014, 2:00-3:30 pm

On The Hampton Plantation: The Overseer's House, Slave Quarters and Farm Tour

Dressed in period attire, Park Ranger Angela Roberts will guide visitors through the authentic slave quarters, dairy and overseer's home and give voice to the enslaved African Americans who made the Ridgelys' lavish lifestyle possible. Participants will have the opportunity to experience first hand, replicas of items used during the 1800s on the plantation. Bring the entire family. Handicap accessible, admission is free, parking on site is available but limited, reservations are not needed.
For more information visit www.nps.gov/hamp or call 410 823-1309 x208. Tour dates are subject to change.

Please call to confirm or consult website.
Hampton NHS, 535 Hampton Lane, Towson, MD 21286

Hampton

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Hampton National Historic Site

March 23 & April 26, 2014, 2:00-3:30 pm

On The Hampton Plantation: The Overseer's House, Slave Quarters and Farm Tour

Dressed in period attire, Park Ranger Angela Roberts will guide visitors through the authentic slave quarters, dairy and overseer's home and give voice to the enslaved African Americans who made the Ridgelys' lavish lifestyle possible. Participants will have the opportunity to experience first hand, replicas of items used during the 1800s on the plantation. Bring the entire family. Handicap accessible, admission is free, parking on site is available but limited, reservations are not needed.
For more information visit www.nps.gov/hamp or call 410 823-1309 x208. Tour dates are subject to change.

Please call to confirm or consult website.
Hampton NHS, 535 Hampton Lane, Towson, MD 21286