Art exhibit extension:

Help the park continue this ecology celebration through art! Upon close of the April Youth Arts in the Parks art exhibit at Tamarack, the National Park Service (NPS) plans to display winning contest entries at the Canyon Rim Visitor Center in Lansing, West Virginia and Sandstone Visitor Center in Sandstone, West Virginia. This display will run through early summer.

Check the box below to grant the NPS permission to extend the display time of your art entry. After the close of this extended exhibit, the parent/guardian of participating students will be contacted directly to arrange a summer art pick-up date.

☐ Yes! Please use my art entry in an extended exhibit in the National Park Service site.

Authenticity and Liability Statement:

- Plagiarism is serious! Refrain from copying others work.
- Student, parent/guardian, and teacher: please read the statement before you sign this entry form:

I hereby certify that this is my original work and not copied or traced from published photos, magazines, books, illustrations, artists' published works, or other materials protected by copyright laws. I understand that the National Park Service (NPS) or other sponsors are not responsible for loss or damage to my artwork. I grant exclusive rights to the NPS and its designees to use, alter, copy, publish, and display my artwork for promotional purposes as they see fit without compensation to me, including the use of my photograph if taken at a related Youth Arts in the Parks program function. I understand that if my artwork is selected as one of the top five contest entries overall, it will be put on display in Tamarack's David L. Dickirson Fine Art Gallery and will be for public sale, with 58% of the purchase price going to the artist and 42% to Tamarack. I further understand that the NPS has the exclusive right to disqualify any entry that is questioned for authenticity.
