National Park Week 2012 Video: Picture Yourself at Point Reyes National Seashore

Transcript

[Majestic Music]
Scene 1 – Law Enforcement Park Ranger on the Point Reyes Beach with the Point Reyes Headlands in the distance.
Ranger: "Eighty miles of shoreline."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 2 – Two trail crew employees standing at the Bear Valley Trail-Coast Trail junction.
Trail crew employee: "One-hundred-and-fifty miles of hiking trails."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 3 – Biological Science Technician standing on ridge with view of Drakes Estero.
Biological Science Technician: "Seventy-thousand acres of biodiversity."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 4 – Interpretive Park Ranger standing on stairs leading down to the Lighthouse.
Ranger: "Two-hundred-and-ninety-seven historic structures."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 5 – Interpretive Park Ranger standing in front of an acorn granery at Kule Loklo with a basket in her arms.
Ranger: "Five-thousand years of cultural history."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 6 – Maintenance employee standing in front of the Bear Valley Visitor Center.
Engineer: "One mission."

[Sound of a camera shutter.]

Scene 7 - Collage of images of park employees, scenes, wildlife, and flowers.
[Voice over]: "Come celebrate our mission with use during National Park Week. And picture yourself at Point Reyes National Seashore."