The Theodore Roosevelt Art Exhibition

Attention Young Artists:

Submissions are being accepted for the new 'Theodore Roosevelt Art Exhibition' gallery! Have you drawn or painted images of our 26th president? Would you like to share them with other Theodore Roosevelt fans? Young people, up to 14 years old, are invited to submit their T.R. - inspired artwork, whether it is a portrait, or an image of Theodore at work or play. Remember to get your parents' permission before sending your creation!

To submit your artwork, attach a scanned JPEG image (preferred), or a photographed JPEG image of your art to an e-mail, include: The title of your work, as well as the medium (pencil, crayon, paper, etc.) Also include your first name/last initial or nickname, age, and hometown in the e-mail, please let us know if you want it included in the image caption, and send to: dprebutt@nps.gov. A maximum of three (3) entries will be accepted per person. The previous deadline has been eliminated and submissions will be accepted until further notice!

All submissions will be subject to consideration for inclusion in the exhibition which will appear in the Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace N.H.S. Photo Gallery, and all decisions are final. Please visit our 'For Kids' webpage at www.nps.gov/thrb for complete submission guidelines.
