ELLIE ATKINS PHOTO

It's tough being the President's daughter

MARGARET TRUMAN can sip a soda in her own home town of Independence without attracting attention. But in Washington she can't appear in public without causing a commotion...can't have a date without starting rumors. She's besieged by social climbers; busybodies want to remodel her clothes, her hair, even her nose. A frank and candid portrait of America's "Second Lady."

by Elise Morrow

Horses should stay out of the living room

—Especially when the living room belongs to your very peevishly landlady. William Fay's new Post Novelette, complete in today's issue, is a rollicking free-for-all about a young man in love, an honest little crook named Crosstown, a fireman's daughter, a black eye, a $4,500 debt and a retired race horse.

UPTOWN GIRL by William Fay

RUSSIA'S secret arsenal

A former Soviet official and author of the best seller "I Chose Freedom" reveals disturbing new facts about the gigantic arsenal being built in Siberia. Russia, he says, is spending vast sums of money on new military preparations. He explains why she is doing so in this illuminating article

STALIN'S MYSTERY CITIES IN SIBERIA
by Victor A. Kravchenko

He's mib-crazy.

Remember the days when agates, steelies and taws were all-important in your life? You'll relive those days when you read this heart-warming story about a kid named Terry, who lost his mib but won a far more important victory.

IT DOESN'T KILL YOU TO LOSE
by Edward W. O'Brien

Last year he made $1,113,035.00

He's Lee McCarey, the man who made Going My Way and The Bells of St. Mary's. Wait till you read about the new movie he's planning. There are only two characters—and they're Adam and Eve!

GOING HIS WAY
by Pete Martin

Also in this issue

That's Not Blasting—That's Bernice—Hemble Bauer writes the success story of Bernice Fitz-Gibbon, advertising director of Gimbels . . . The Happy Ending—a love story by Mosser Mauger . . . Can France Hold Her Eastern Empire? by George Weller . . . plus many other entertaining and enlightening articles, stories, serials and special features, including cartoons and poems.

* * *

WHAT'S NEW? For the latest news of products and services, do as millions of Americanado—look first to the advertising pages of The Saturday Evening Post.

POST

Coming in December
THE POST WILL PUBLISH THE
All-American Football Team
SELECTED BY THE AMERICAN FOOTBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION

There's exciting reading for everyone in the Post!

HCM Vertical File

Item 3
page 33