Dear Mrs. Mann —
I had forgotten how delicious fresh garden peas are but I surely found out when you sent me yours. I had some new potatoes on hand and you know what a a combination that would make!
Thank you so much for giving me so much pleasure.
Sincerely —
Bess Truman

Bess W. Truman

RETURNED FOR POSTAG

Mrs. R. J. Mann
3201 Belmont
Independence
Missouri.

This matter is being sent to you because it was found in the U. S. Mail without postage affixed. This is contrary to Section 146.11, Postal Service Manual, which requires that postage on all mail must be fully prepaid at the time of mailing.