BATTLE OF "THE RED-MOUTHED GUN"

On the left is a timeline listing important events in Hawaiian history. Use the Park's Visitor Center exhibits, trail signs, and brochure to find the years that these events took place. The first date has been filled in for you!

John Young and Isaac Davis were British sailors who arrived in Hawai'i on the ships Beanoia and Fair American. Kamehameha came to know and trust them as his foreign advisors. Young was later elevated to the position of ali'i nui (high chief and governor) of Hawai'i Island.

John Young and Isaac Davis taught Kamehameha how to sail the Fair American and use its cannon and muskets. Traders and dignitaries from Russia, France, the United States, Great Britain, and other nations were required to obtain official approval from Young at Kawaihae before they could conduct business or meet with Kamehameha.

John Young's home was one of the first European-style houses in all of Hawai'i. The white plaster-covered stone house was visible from far out at sea. The mortar was made from crushed coral, poi, and hair.
