I surely did enjoy yours. And your Divinity is super and I love it.

You were so good to send these delicious gifts and I cannot tell you how greatly I appreciate it.

Sincerely
Bess Truman

Dear Mrs. Mann—
I have forgotten how delicious fresh garden peas are but I surely found out when you sent me yours. I had some new potatoes on hand and you know what a a combination that would make!

Thank you so much for giving me so much pleasure.
Sincerely—
Bess Truman

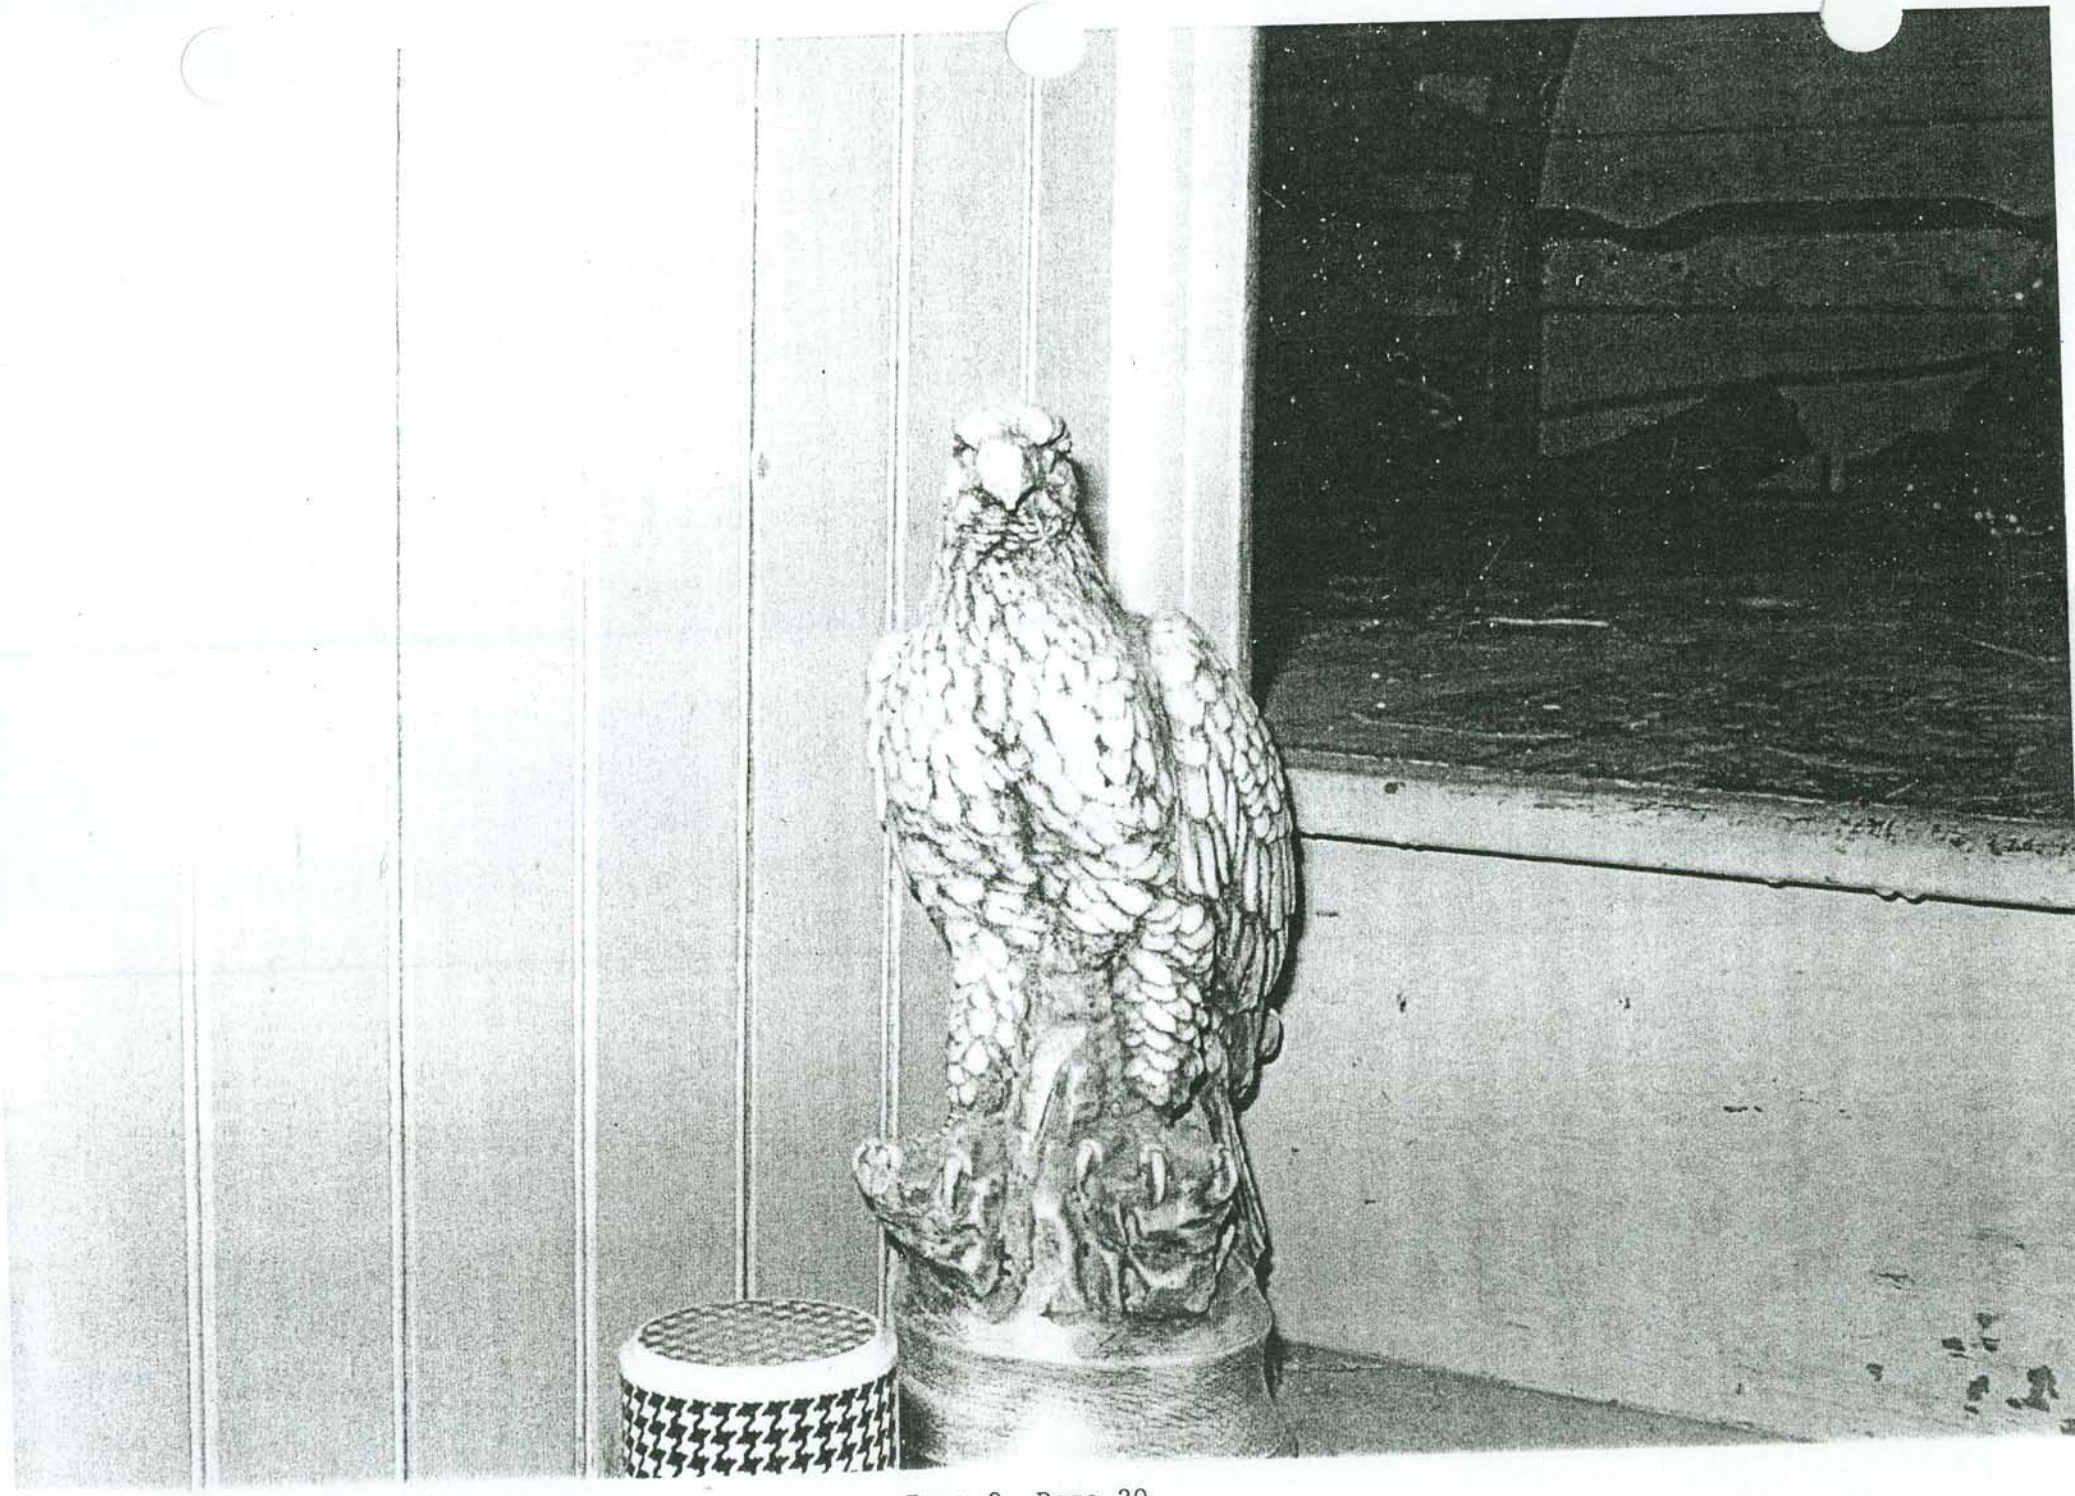
This matter is being sent to you because it was found in the U. S. Mail without postage affixed. This is contrary to Section 146.11, Postal Service Manual, which requires that postage on all mail must be fully prepaid at the time of mailing.



Dear Mr. Gore —

You were most kind to make this eagle for me. It is a beauty and I am very proud to own it. I had no idea that concrete could have been made into something so perfect.

Thank you so very
