Did you know John Fitzgerald Kennedy was the thirty-fifth president of the United States? Have you heard J.F.K was called Jack instead of John by his family? I think J.F.K was a brave hero?

I think J.F.K was a brave hero because he helped his crew in World War Two. Another reason J.F.K was a brave hero was he said Many Speaches. His speeches had famous quotes that premoted bravery. People still use theese quotes today like "Ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country."

I chose to write about this part of J.F.K's life because he set good examples for children and adults, he fought for what he belived in, and J.F.K shows people they can do anything or be anything, including the president of the United States of America!
