J.F.K.'s Father had big expectations for Joe and even bigger for John. John had a big sense of humor, he was a funny and intelligent kid. Swimming was his talent reading was his hobby. Reading helped him later when he was presidend because he needed to know what was going on in the countly.

John FitZgerald Kennedy was pushed to behave and be the best student. When he was young his MOM would right a question on a board, and dinner the kids would have to answer it if they didn't it would show is MOM Rose that they did not pay attention at school.

John called Jake, was sick alout so he was in bed alout so when he was in bed about and when he was in bed he could not wath t.v. So he read books. His favorite books were Billy Whiskers and King Arthur. His parents where strict, they where strict about being on time to the dinner table like if you where late to dinner you would miss that course.

One day Joe, Jake's older brother segested a race Joe would go one way and Jake would go the other way and they would meet and who ever swerved would be chicken. Joe knew how competitive Jake was, and Jake accepted the race. They got on there bikes and started to ride. They rode and knew if he swerved he would be chicken so he did not swerve and they crashed. Jake got hurt on his leg Joe survived and ran off. J.F.K's 1st is the best 2 is not good.

J.F.K and I are alike because we are both competitive and we never give up and we both went to Devotion

J.F.K. has taught me you can make your dream come true if you just believe in yourself. J.F.K.s parents expectations helped him become a tremendous and brave leder when he was president.
