J.F.K. was helpful to others. He worked with M.L.K. Jr. to stop segregation. J.F.K. was brave, helpful, and kind. J.F.K. showed us that it's important to treat people fairly.

Many years ago life was horrible for black people. White people and black people were separated. They could't go to the same restaurants. Whites had better sinks in bathrooms, and they had to use different waterfountains. I think that these laws were unfair and that everyone should get to ush the same things. I think that if you treat people fairly they will treat you fairly back. My mom and J.F.K. taught me to be kind.

J.F.K. and I are alike because

We both like to ride bikes and to race. We both like sports, especially football.

J.F.K. has taught me to help keep people safe. He also taught me to help make people happy.
