The Captain's Bathroom

This toilet and washroom was for the exclusive use of the captain, his family, and his guests, as was the after companionway, with its ladder leading directly to the poop. The mates entered the after quarters, or cabin, by the door opening forward on the main deck, and they shared primitive toilet facilities with the crew, forward under the foc's'le head.