

Janis Kozlowski: So, did you keep up with any of your crew members?

Joseph D. Hutchison: Only Bohannon [William Roy Bohannon of Sulphur Springs, Texas, now deceased] a little bit. He was the oldest enlisted man on the crew and he stayed in the Air Force after the war. He was on flying status at the age of 65. And he finally retired. He had married a school teacher in Texas, and he went into the television repair business.

Janis Kozlowski: And did you say, Reineke; do you keep in contact with him?

Joseph D. Hutchison: Yeah, pretty much. He kept in contact with me, mostly. But, he's died now too, you know?

Janis Kozlowski: Oh, did he? Is he from New York?

Joseph D. Hutchison: Yes.

Janis Kozlowski: OK. We do send the calendars to his family, not to him specifically; it's to his family.

Joseph D. Hutchison: Yeah, he died in; I think it was '93 when he died.

Janis Kozlowski: OK. Does anything else come to mind?

Joseph D. Hutchison: Not right now.
