

Daily 2:00pm Special Program Schedule

Mondays in June

Arctic National Wildlife Refuge

Explore this wild coastal plain with Ranger Roger Fuson and learn why it has become a focus of debate.

Tuesdays in June

Gold! Gold! Gold!

George Washington Carmack and his friends discovered gold in the Klondike in 1896. Through a historic gold-panning demonstration, Ranger Chris Smith tells the story of Alaska's and the Yukon's "Great Gold Rush."

Wednesday June 18

Journey of the Tiglax: Video and Commentary

Presented by Kristen Shake, a geography student at the University of Alaska Fairbanks. She grew up recreating in Prince William Sound and recently returned from a journey on the Tiglax.

Wednesday June 25

Alaska's Marine Mammals

Ron Goertz of the Alaska SeaLife Center hosts a program on Alaska's coastal creatures, above and below the water. This program discusses the adaptations that marine mammals need in order to survive in the harsh marine environment. See and touch a variety of marine mammal furs, skulls and teeth.

Thursdays in June

Live Alaskan Animals from The Alaska Zoo

at 2:00pm
Presenters discuss the life and biology of each featured animal... and the importance of zoos in this time of dwindling wildlife populations.

19th & 26th Daisy the Porcupine

Fridays in June

Dog Mushing 101 at 2:00pm
Experience an Alaskan tradition first-hand. Meet an Alaskan husky, stand on the runners of a dog sled, hear the noise at feeding time, meet a real musher and more. Join Erin McLarnon and some of her sled dogs for this demonstration in Downtown Anchorage.

Saturdays in June

Live Bird Demonstrations

This 2:00pm program features Alaskan birds, live and on-site. Volunteers from the Bird Treatment & Learning Center discuss the birds' life, habits, and habitat, while the birds look on. A great chance to view our feathered friends "up close and personal."

June 21st Bald Eagle
June 28th Golden Eagle

Walking Tour

11:00am & 2:30pm Daily (weather-permitting)

Captain Cook Walking Tour

In 1779 Captain James Cook visited Southcentral Alaska on his voyage to find the elusive Northwest passage. Join Park Rangers in this fascinating look into the cultural and natural history of Alaska's public lands through the explorer's eyes. The Walking Tour starts at the NW corner of 4th & F St. (at the banner) This is a 45-minute, 3/4 mile walking tour.
