

COASTAL HABITAT CONSERVATION PRESENTATION SERIES

JUNE 5 STARTING AT 2:00 P.M.

Alaska Public Lands Information Center Auditorium (605 West 4th Avenue between F and G Streets)

AFOGNAK AND KODIAK ISLANDS – CONSERVING THESE UNIQUE COASTAL ECOSYSTEMS

Join Tim Richardson as he takes us on a journey to the pristine habitats of Afognak and Kodiak Islands and shares his experiences with more than two decades of habitat restoration after the Exxon Valdez oil spill and his on-going work to conserve and protect these biologically diverse island ecosystems.

Speaker: Tim Richardson, Director of Government Affairs for the American Land Conservancy and editor of the book, "Kodiak Bears and the Exxon Valdez."

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

David Wigglesworth
Coastal Program Manager, Southcentral, Alaska
USFWS, Anchorage Fish and Wildlife Field Office
David_wigglesworth@fws.gov
907-271-3764

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Coastal Program
— celebrating 25 years of partnerships for coastal conservation.