60th Anniversary Year!

Effigy Mounds National Monument, located along the Mississippi River in extreme northeast Iowa, was established in 1949 in order to preserve prehistoric burial and ceremonial mounds built by Woodland Indians between 2500 and 750 years ago.

Teachers - if you are involved in teaching history or social studies or any other area in the humanities, and you love the experience of meeting other interesting people from various backgrounds, please join us on any number of the Saturday workshops listed. Effigy Mounds National Monument, Humanities Iowa, 3M, and a variety of partners in Iowa and Wisconsin have teamed up to present -

SEEDS OF CHANGE: INSURING OUR FUTURE BY UNDERSTANDING OUR PAST.

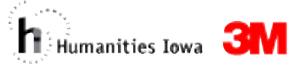

These workshops will include field trips to some of the most impressive and well preserved ceremonial, archaeological and habitational sites in the upper Midwest. You will be exposed to Native Americans to the Europeans to the Steamboat era, Perusing our Pioneer History, Native American Heritage and Riverboats / Logging / Trains. Workshops are open to teachers and other interested persons.

RECERTIFICATION and GRADUATE credit hours are available through Morningside College:
 * 1 credit for attending 2 workshops
 * 2 credits for attending all 4 workshops
