

South Florida Natural Resources Center

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

South Florida Ecosystems Office
905 North Krome Avenue, 3rd Floor
Homestead, FL 33030

Management Organization Chart

Though administratively a division of Everglades and Dry Tortugas National Parks, the South Florida Natural Resources Center (SFNRC) serves the science needs of all four south Florida national park units. The SFNRC works alongside each park management team to satisfy research needs and provide resource management recommendations and restoration assessments.

