Bringin' in '09 with the 99

We can hardly believe it's almost Glacier's 99th birthday (May 11, 2009)! It has been a wonderful year meeting so many Glacier advocates who have quickly become friends. We want to take the opportunity to wish each of you a Happy New Year! May 2009 be a good year for all! Hope to see you soon.

100 Years, 100 Stories

The View Inside Glacier National Park

Tell YOUR Glacier National Park story. Submit a story or poem for the Glacier Centennial Commemorative Book: 100 Years, 100 Stories. This is could be your opportunity to share your first experience in the wilderness, to remember the day you met your significant other, or the day that you felt the renewal that Glacier National Park has to offer. Whichever you choose, it may be just the time for you to be published!

Send your stories to the Centennial Coordinator at:

Centennial Storyboard

“What [tribal] people know about the landscape in our parks, the body of knowledge that they've carried through from generation to generation and have memorialized in songs and stories, is a resource to be protected just as much as the trees and the rocks and the fish.”

-Pat Parker, Chief NPS American Indian Liaison Office
