

SUPER SEEKERS

DID YOU KNOW?

Weasels are super seekers. Their fur changes from brown in the summer to white in the winter, so they blend in with the background all-year long. Their long, sleek bodies are low to the ground, allowing them to sneak up on prey long before being seen. Small mammals and birds need to be on the alert to avoid these super seekers.