“Conrad’s Great Adventure” Coming to Page

Page, AZ – Glen Canyon National Recreation Area and the Bureau of Reclamation invite you to attend “Conrad’s Great Adventure,” an interactive puppet show for kids of all ages.

The puppet show will be performed at the Carl Hayden Visitor Center at the Glen Canyon Dam near Page, Arizona, on Friday, August 11, 2006. Show times will be 10:30 AM and 3:00 PM. This hour-long show tells an inspiring action-packed tale of adventure, friendship, discovery, and triumph and includes live music performed by the Chili Pepper Players for sing-alongs.

Our puppet hero, Conrad, the baby condor, now old enough to go out on his own, has just been released at the Vermillion Cliffs area and has headed up the Colorado River in search of his dinner. He fancies upon several residents who have a gigantic problem – what to do about the mean old water master Dilbert T. Drip. They plead for Conrad’s help. Will he? Come find out the rest of the story and help Conrad make the right choice to save his friends from sure death.

For details about this and other ranger programs, contact the Carl Hayden Visitor Center between 8:00 AM and 6:00 PM at 928-608-6404. The Carl Hayden Visitor Center is open seven days a week.

We hope to see you there with your best singing voice and clapping hands.
