Junior Ranger Day & Spring Open House at Clara Barton National Historic Site on Saturday, May 2

Glen Echo, MD – Are you looking for something fun to do with your family or friends? If so, come to Clara Barton National Historic Site's Junior Ranger Day and Spring Open House on Saturday, May 2, from 1:00 - 6:00 p.m. During this event, children between the ages of 7-12 can earn a certificate and badge and become Junior Rangers at Clara Barton National Historic Site and/or adjacent Glen Echo Park by visiting the site(s) and completing an activity book. In addition, adults and families will be regaled by tales of Clara Barton's courage, vision, and leadership during an open house at her home, warehouse, and the Headquarters of the American Red Cross. This free event is located at 5801 Oxford Road in Glen Echo, Maryland. For more information, visit www.nps.gov/clba or contact the National Park Service at 301-320-1410.

The Junior Ranger Day & Spring Open House event is being held on May 2 in conjunction with Family Day at Glen Echo Park. On Family Day, a National Park Service ranger will lead several free tours at Glen Echo Park, including a Carousel Tour at 10:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. and a Park Tour at 2:00 p.m. For additional information about ranger-led tours of Glen Echo Park, please contact the National Park Service at 301-320-1400 or visit www.nps.gov/glec. To learn more about additional activities on Family Day, please contact the Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, Inc. at 301-634-2222. Parking for Glen Echo Park is located next to Clara Barton National Historic Site at 5801 Oxford Road in Glen Echo, Maryland.
