

2024 Commercial Use Authorization (CUA) Fee Schedule

Guides: Please have your current CUA permit ready to show entrance station staff and review this entrance fee information with clients before arriving at the entrance station!

Clients aged 15 and younger are not charged entrance fees.

It is illegal for a guide to use their own pass for client entrance fees.

Entrance fees for Yellowstone National Park must be paid separately.

Grand Teton National Park Entrance Fee Payment Options for CUA Clients:

- $20 Individual/Per-Person Pass: Clients of CUA holders aged 16 yrs. and older can purchase a $20/person pass. Passes are valid for 7 days.
- Interagency or GTNP Pass: A CUA holder client can present or purchase an Interagency or GTNP pass to gain entry for up to 4 people maximum, this includes the pass holder. The pass holder must be present and have identification to show upon entry. If the party size is larger than 4 people, additional passes must be purchased. See list of passes below.
- If a CUA holder Client has a Valid $35 7-day Private Vehicle Entrance Pass: If a CUA holder client has a valid $35 Private Vehicle Entrance Pass, the $35 can be credited towards per person passes ($20 each).
