

Archeology Workshop for Teachers

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Hopewell Culture National Historical Park

Have you been looking for new ideas to engage your students or are you just looking for a new way to challenge your teaching style? Join us at Hopewell Culture National Historical Park for a week in the park learning about archeology and ways to apply hands on techniques with your students. You will work side by side with park archeology and education staff. And you get to spend a whole week in your local National Park while earning contact hours from Ohio University- Chillicothe!

Location

Mound City Group
Chillicothe, Ohio

Dates

June 20-24, 2011
Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Workshop Activities Include:

- Discussions with park archeology and education staff about Ohio's human past, archeology basics, and teaching the past
- Hands-on archeology, including excavation and mapping
- Tour local archeology sites
- Free teaching materials

Important Information:

- Workshop open to school teachers of all grades
- Cost is free
- No lodging available
- Certificate for 35 contact hours from Ohio University- Chillicothe awarded at workshop
- Graduate credit hours available
- Workshop limited to 10 participants

Registration: registration forms available at: www.nps.gov/hocu

On the Home page under "Quicklinks" select "Teacher Workshop"

Send registration forms to:

Fax: 740-773-1070

Email: melinda_repko@nps.gov

Mail: Hopewell Culture National Historical Park

16062 State Route 104

Chillicothe, Ohio 45601

Deadline for registration: Monday, June 6, 2011

For more information, contact Melinda Repko at melinda_repko@nps.gov or 740-774-1126.

Hopewell Culture National Historical Park
16062 State Route 104 Chillicothe, Ohio 45601
www.nps.gov/hocu