Independence

---

How to become a Junior Ranger:

1. Complete 3 or more activities.
2. Attend at least one ranger guided tour or activity. Check at the Independence Visitor Center for times, locations, and free tickets.
3. Bring your handout to the Independence Visitor Center at 6th and Market Street. Go to the NPS information desk and ask a Park Ranger to check your booklet. Then claim your reward.

Something is Missing!

Circle the two Liberty Bells that are identical.

Connect the Dots

The arrowhead represents the national park system. The Sequoia tree and bison represent vegetation and wildlife, the mountains and water represent the scenic and recreational part of the parks, while the arrowhead itself represents the historical and archeological elements.

Which one doesn't belong?

Circle the object that does not belong with the others.
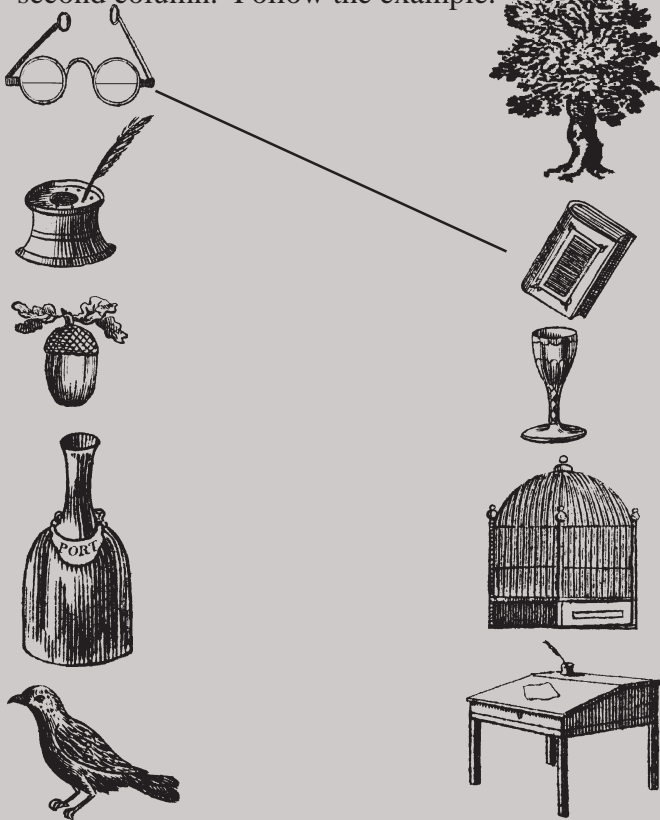

Fill in the Missing Word

There is a word missing from the inscription on the Liberty Bell. Can you figure out what it is? Fill in the word below.

Proclaim _____ throughout all the Land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

By order of the Assembly of the Province of Pensylvania (sp) for the State House in Philada

Find a Mate

Match the item in the first column with those in the second column. Follow the example.

Trading Cards

Kids, ask a Park Ranger how you can earn free Independence National Historical Park trading cards. Collecting trading cards is a fun way to learn more about the people, places and things that tell the story of Philadelphia and the founding of our nation.

WHERE TO GET CARDS:
The Liberty Bell Center
The Independence Visitor Center
The West Wing of Independence Hall
The Portrait Gallery in the Second Bank of the US
New Hall Military Museum
The Declaration House
Franklin Court
      The Printing Office
      Fragments of Franklin Court (318 Market St.)

Start

Finish

The bell is ringing! Help Ben get to the Statehouse from his home in Franklin Court.