TSONGAS INDUSTRIAL HISTORY ENTER

2014 Summer Day Camps

Boott Camp

July 7-11 July 28-August 1

Boys and Girls ages 8-12 (Entering Grades 3-7)

Build and test your own canal system, weave cloth on a four-harness loom, explore the historic Boott Mills and boardinghouse, visit an operating factory weave room, ride a trolley, take a boat trip on the Merrimack River, play games, and create works of art. Explore the roots of the American Industrial Revolution and find out how this amazing time in history still affects the way we live today!

Wonders of Water

July 14-18

Boys and Girls ages 8-12 (Entering Grades 3-7)

Water is very important to the city of Lowell. Explore Lowell's awesome waterways aboard a National Park Service boat, learn about water by doing wacky experiments, build a working power canal system, and investigate the creatures that call water home. Discover the amazing connections between science and history in the "Venice of America.'

National Park Adventures

Visiting New Sites for 2014!

July 14-18 July 28-August 1

Boys and Girls ages 10-14 (Entering Grades 5-9)

····· Visit four National Parks and two National Wildlife Refuges in Massachusetts and learn how America's history and our environment are protected for all to enjoy. Join a boat tour of Lowell's historic canal system. Take part in a colonial muster on Concord's Battle Road. Climb the Bunker Hill Monument, travel through Boston Harbor by boat, and visit historic Faneuil Hall. Become a landscape architect and plan your own city park. Go hiking in two national wildlife refuges.

Eco-Explorers

July 21-25

Bovs and Girls ages 10-14 (Entering Grades 5-9)

Lowell may be a city, but nature can still be found here! Spend a week with other "eco-explorers" investigating the natural treasures of Lowell and exploring the urban national park. Go canoeing on a lazy river, visit a nature center, take an urban nature hike along the Merrimack River, and try to make s'mores without a campfire. Discover the natural world that can be found in Lowell's "backyard"!

Boott Camp: Discovery

Boys and Girls ages 10-14 (Entering

Grades 5-9)

Explore "what ifs," "whys," and "hows" through crafts, field trips, games, and "eggs" periments that take a step beyond the ordinary. Use everyday objects to build (and sometimes demolish!) something... all in the name of adventure. Discover new twists on Lowell's stories with a fresh look at our hands-on activities. Journey upriver past the historic Pawtucket Dam to the boathouse where fun and challenges await you.

Summer Camp Staff

Summer camp programs are designed and staffed by professional educators from the University of Massachusetts Lowell and Lowell National Historical Park. We have at least one staff member for each 8 to 10 children. Safety is always our first concern!

Campers bring a brown-bag lunch. Snacks provided. All campers receive camp T-shirts.

> Summer Camps run Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 3:00 pm.

The Tsongas Industrial History Center

The Tsongas Industrial History Center, located in the Boott Cotton Mills, 115 John Street, Lowell, Massachusetts, is a collaborative project of the University of Massachusetts Lowell Graduate School of Education and the National Park Service at Lowell National Historical Park. The Center encourages the teaching of industrial history in a hands-on way through on and off-site educational programs to over 50,000 students annually.

The National Park Service preserves, protects, and interprets America's heritage. Lowell National Historical Park tells the story of America's first planned industrial city and the industrial revolution. The park includes mill complexes, a power canal system, gatehouses, and worker housing. The park is open to visitors throughout the year.

Space is limited. Sign up early; Pre-registration required.
