

Wilderness Camping & Climbing Permit Reservations

Reserve Your Permit

Reservations are available for backpackers and climbers who wish to camp in backcountry campsites/areas of Mount Rainier National Park. Beginning March 15, reservations are accepted for any time during the period of May 1 through September 30. Reservations are OPTIONAL, and they are not always needed; however, for much of the summer, many of the popular camps fill up and reservations are strongly recommended. Reservations are almost always needed for those wanting to do longer backpacking trips such as the Wonderland Trail, and for those wanting to camp or climb on weekends from Memorial Day through mid-September.

Approximately 70% of all wilderness campsites and zones are reservable. The remaining 30% are issued on a first come-first served basis one day prior to or the day a trip begins. These first come-first served sites go quickly and cannot be counted on to be available when you want to start a trip.

Permits & Fees Required For Wilderness Camping & Climbing

Wilderness camping permits, for camping anywhere in the park's backcountry, are required year-round, but are free. Climbers must obtain a climbing permit in place of the wilderness camping permit. Climbing fees are required year-round for anyone traveling on glaciers or above the normal high camps. Reservations cost $20 per party (1-12 people) per trip (up to 14 consecutive nights). Reservation fees are non-refundable. Climbing passes are $43 per person, per year, and $30 per year for climbers 24 years old and younger. Climbing fees are non-refundable.

Fax/Mail In Reservations

Reservations can be requested by fax or mail only beginning March 15. Faxes sent or letters postmarked before March 15 will not be accepted. Phone reservations are not accepted. Further reservation information is available on the web at

Payment Due With Reservation

Reservations cannot be confirmed until payment is received. The park accepts Visa, Discover, American Express, and Mastercard credit cards. Within one week of requesting a reservation (longer, if early season), a confirmation letter will be sent if the trip can be accommodated, or a letter of rejection will be sent if the trip cannot be accommodated. Reservations not picked up by 10:00 a.m. on the first day of the trip will be cancelled unless the party has called any park Ranger Station and requested a late pick up.

Camping Policy

Parties cannot camp more than 4 consecutive nights in any one camp or zone. In the 2 main climbing corridors of Muir and Schurman, climbing parties are limited to reserving a maximum of 4 nights total within those corridors. However, parties may attempt to add additional nights within these corridors when they check in for their climb. Hikers doing the complete Wonderland Trail will be limited to camping in designated camps only—the use of cross-country zones will not be permitted to fill itineraries when designated camps are full.
