

Learning How to Read a Museum Object – Worksheet – Side 1

 What is it?	What was it used for? Why would Clara Barton need an object like this in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with this object? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here:
 What are these objects?	What were they used for? Why would Clara Barton need objects like these in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with these objects? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here:
 What is it?	What was it used for? Why would Clara Barton need an object like this in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with this object? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here:

Learning How to Read a Museum Object – Worksheet – Side 2

 What is it?	What was it used for? Why would Clara Barton need an object like this in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with this object? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here:
 What is it?	What was it used for? Why would Clara Barton need an object like this in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with this object? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here:
 What is it? (the black object in the white oval)	What was it used for? Why would Clara Barton need an object like this in the American Red Cross offices? What job do you think the volunteers would perform with this object? Do we still use objects like this now?	Write your answers here: