New Niobrara River Rules Released for Comment

You are invited by Superintendent, Dan Foster to review the proposed Superintendent's Compendium for the Niobrara National Scenic River and to provide feedback to the National Park Service.

The Superintendent's Compendium is a formal document which sets site-specific, legally binding rules for the management of a National Park unit. The proposed rules for the Niobrara River are intended to increase visitor and employee safety as well as to protect the outstandingly remarkable recreation, scenic, geologic, fossil, and fish & wildlife resource values.

Download a copy of the Superintendent's Compendium from the Niobrara National Scenic River web site at www.nps.gov/niob or stop by the headquarters office at 146 S Hall Street in Valentine, NE Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. to pick up a copy. Comments in writing are due by Tuesday, May 26 and may be submitted by mail to Niobrara National Scenic River, PO Box 319, Valentine, NE 69201, or by using the Email Us link at the bottom of our web home page.
