

World Heritage in the United States Jr. Ranger Program Answer and Activity Sheet

Please fill in the following information:

Your Name: _____ Age: _____

Mailing Address: _____

_____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Parent or Guardian's Signature: _____

Wally -
The World
Heritage Wolf

World Heritage in the United States Jr. Ranger Web Quest

Use these sheets to record your answers to the 10 questions, activities and challenges found by clicking on the Question Section, Wally TV, and Wally's Grab-Bag icons. Remember, you can do them in any order, though we recommend that you start with the Question Section first, as that provides an overview of the World Heritage Program in the United States.

When you've finished, mail these pages to the following address and we'll mail you a World Heritage in the United States Jr. Ranger badge, certificate of accomplishment, and a World Heritage brochure.

Mail Completed Forms to:

NPS Office of International Affairs
C/O Wally the World Heritage Wolf
1201 Eye Street, NW (0050)
Washington, DC 20005

World Heritage Sites are really cool places and are found in just about every country in the world. They are so unique that they have received a special designation that sets them apart from other protected areas. They are World Heritage Sites.

Continue on to the next page to start your quest as a World Heritage in the United States Jr. Ranger.

Good Luck and Have Fun...

Wally's Question Section

QUESTION 1.

Help Wally select which U.S. Government Department you think would make the most likely choice to manage the World Heritage Program in the United States.

The U.S. Department of: _____

QUESTION 2.

After scrolling through the slide show, list at least three (3) reasons why you think Yellowstone National Park was designated a World Heritage Site.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

QUESTION 3.

Part 1.

How many World Heritage Sites in the United States are there? Answer: _____

Part 2.

While many states do not have a World Heritage Site, one of them has three! Which one is it? The state with the most World Heritage Sites is: _____.

Part 3.

Twelve of the US World Heritage Sites are considered to be primarily natural areas. Of these twelve, there are several that contain Wally's brothers and sisters (wolves).

List the three World Heritage Sites in the U.S. which contain wolves:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Wally TV Activities

WALLY TV ACTIVITY 1.

Watch the Wally TV show and decide which two pictures are not actual World Heritage Sites in the United States.

The two places which are not real World Heritage Sites in the U.S. are:

1. _____ and 2. _____

WALLY TV ACTIVITY 2.

After watching the movie clip, “Sherlock Heritage,” can you decide which is the real World Heritage in the U.S. Tentative List, and which one’s are the imposters?

The Real World Heritage in the U.S. Tentative List is number: _____

WALLY TV ACTIVITY 3.

Explore one of the World Heritage Sites in anyone of the country slide shows. Discover why that particular site became a World Heritage Site. Do a little exploring and sightseeing in Mexico, China, Russia or India! Then tell us:

1. The Name of the World Heritage Site you visited: _____

2. In what year was it made a World Heritage Site? _____

3. Tell us at least three things that are special about the site - its history, the animals found there, why it is a World Heritage Site, etc.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

For Extra Credit (and a bonus award), tell us in which slide show(s) Patrimonito can be found. Patrimonito may be hiding, so look carefully.

Patrimonito can be found in: _____

Wally's Grab-Bag Challenges

WALLY'S GRAB-BAG CHALLENGE 1.

Roll your mouse over the small pictures on the web-site and using the information provided, guess which World Heritage Site they are. Match the numbers and names of the sites with the pictures. There is one incorrect answer, so be careful with your answers.

1. Monticello	4. Yosemite National Park
2. Yellowstone National Park	5. Hawaii Volcanoes National Park
3. Independence Hall	6. Statue of Liberty

A. _____ B. _____ C. _____

D. _____ E. _____

WALLY'S GRAB-BAG CHALLENGE 2.

Ideally all World Heritage Sites, including those in the U.S., are managed in such a way to keep them as clean and beautiful as possible. However, sometimes there are factors beyond the control of park or site managers.

List the five numbers that are environmental factors that might affect the condition of a World Heritage in the United States Site:

WALLY'S GRAB-BAG CHALLENGE 3.

Figure out the three countries listed that are on the World Heritage Committee. Use the pictures to puzzle out the names of each country. There is a list at the bottom of that challenge that includes all the member countries of the Committee. Using that list may help you out.

The three World Heritage Committee member countries that are shown in the picture puzzles are:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

WALLY'S GRAB-BAG CHALLENGE 4.

Use the World Heritage Secret Decoder Alphabet to figure out the secret message. Help Wally figure out what it says.

The text says:

Remember, when you've finished, send your completed answers to:

NPS Office of International Affairs
C/O Wally the World Heritage Wolf
1201 Eye Street, NW (0050)
Washington, DC 20005

We will send you your Jr. Ranger, Certificate, and brochure in 1 to 3 weeks.