65th Anniversary of the Port Chicago Explosion

Saturday, July 18, 2009, 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

During World War II, on July 17, 1944, 320 military and civilian men gave their lives in service to America when the munitions ships they were loading mysteriously exploded. Today, we reflect on the memories of loss, struggle, and lessons evoked by the 1944 explosion.
