

Saturday, September 26 Public Lands Day

Sagamore Hill will offer a host of activities on Saturday, September 26 beginning with a volunteer Beach Clean-Up from 8:30 am to 12:00 pm. The beach clean-up is part of the International Coastal Sweep event in Oyster Bay organized by the Friends of The Bay, Power Squadron and Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Meet at the Visitor Center and wear appropriate shoes and old clothes.

There will be a short preview highlighting segments of Ken Burns' new documentary film: The National Parks: Americas Best Idea. The new Burns film chronicles the founding of the National Park Service in 1916 to present. The screening will take place in our program tent behind the Visitor Center beginning at 6:30 pm.

Fee Free on Public Lands Day

There is no charge to visit Sagamore Hill on September 26, 2009. Visitors will still need to get tickets to tour Theodore Roosevelt's home. Tours are on the hour and on a first come first served basis.
