

American Memorial Park

Working with Northern Mariana Islands

By the Numbers

Almost every American city and town claims a little bit of the National Park Service. Communities invite us to help them. Together we build trails and playgrounds, return historic buildings to productive use, revitalize neighborhoods, expand affordable housing, protect watersheds, recognize and promote local history, and introduce the next generation to stewardship opportunities. When we combine our expertise and resources we can accomplish great things.

$1,113,226 of Land & Water Conservation Fund Appropriated for Projects (since 1965)

$10,226,773 in Historic Preservation Grants (since 1969)

1,616 Hours Donated by Volunteers

38 National Register of Historic Places Listings

2 National Historic Landmarks

100,067 Objects in National Park Museum Collections

2 Discover Our Shared Heritage Travel Itineraries

These numbers are just a sample of the National Park Service's work. Figures are for the fiscal year that ended 9/30/2017.

Learn more about National Park Service work with Northern Mariana Islands

Visit us at: www.nps.gov/northernmarianaislands

Have questions? Email: northernmarianaislands@nps.gov

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.