

SEYMOUR TIMES Article Seymour, Indiana January 22, 1863

Partial list of casualties in the 39th Regiment at the battle of Murfreesboro:

Co. F. – H. C. Snyder, wounded; R. W. Sturgen, wounded; S. T. Forbes, killed; A. O. Cody, wounded; John Mitchell, lost; G. W. Barnett, wounded; James Best, severely wounded; Wm. Claybaker, wounded; W. S Cox, killed; H. C. Crump; wounded; B. F. Davis, killed; Wm. Edwards, wounded; D. Gartleman, wounded; John Guffey, wounded and missing; Allen Hatten, killed; Johnson Hayden, wounded; G. H. Huffman, wounded; H. W. Kelly, wounded; A. J. McClintock killed; George Miller, wounded; H. Mellenbrook, wounded; J. M. Overman, killed, Wm. Pettit, wounded; A. Rogers, wounded; J. M. Stiles, wounded; J. Sullivan, wounded and since died; B. Winslow, wounded; Adjutant Neal, killed.

Company K. – C. C. Love, flesh wound in thigh; J. W. Fisk, wounded; Wm. Godker, wounded; Aaron Robins, wounded.

Missing – John L. Hagins, Riley Stockdell, Nat. Jenkins, John Anderson, Wm. Boball, Joseph Crane, John Cooley, Wm. Clifton, George Compton, Jefferson Hancock, Marion Hancock, Samuel Lockhart, James H. Lawson, Wm. Lockman, Nathan Moore, Chas. Mitchell, Samuel McClarey, Elias Romine, Milton Stockdell, John L. Jones.