RC The Exchange of Cultures –
Do You Speak Timucua?

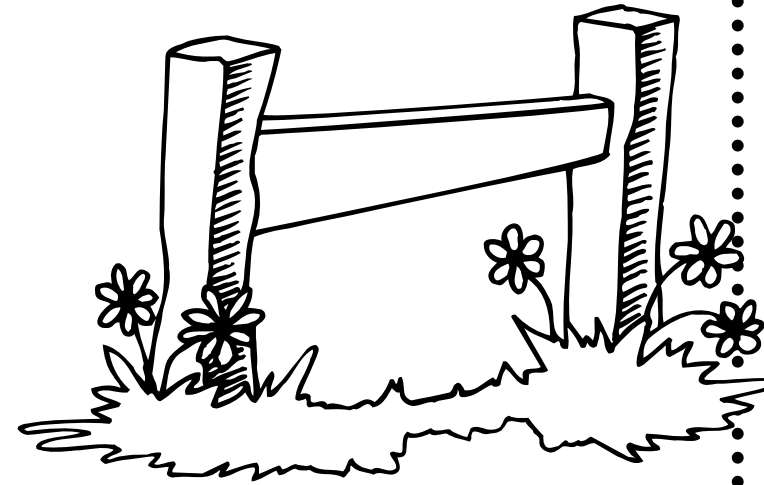

Father Pareja (“Pah-RAY-ha”) was a Spanish missionary. He wrote down how to speak the Timucua language so he could teach them to be Christians.

Here are some animal words in the English, Spanish, and Timucua. On the exhibit, match these words in all three languages. Then, draw lines connecting the words with the right translations!

“Alligator” is done for you.

ENGLISH	SPANISH	TIMUCUA
Alligator	Ostra	Chulufi
Fox	Raposo	Habe
Bird	Pajaro	Itori
Oyster	El Lagarto	Sicali

KP In the garden...

In the park’s garden, you will see the same kinds of crops that were grown on the plantation.

Different crops are planted each season.

Circle which season it is right now:

- Spring Summer
Fall Winter

List 3 crops you saw growing in the garden.

- _____
- _____
- _____

KP Who am I?

- ◆ I was born in Senegal, Africa.
- ◆ Zephaniah Kingsley purchased me when I was a teenager, and then he married me.
- ◆ Unlike most slaves, I became free.
- ◆ I had four children.
- ◆ I helped run Kingsley Plantation with my husband.

Who am I?

KP Africa and the Slave Trade

Many people from Africa were taken and sold to work and live as slaves far away from their homes.

- ◆ Label the continents of Africa and North America.
- ◆ Label the Atlantic Ocean.
- ◆ Draw a line between the west coast of Africa and Florida. This is one of the routes that ships carrying slaves traveled.

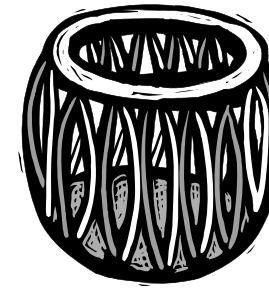

I did the cotton activity!

RC The Exchange of Cultures – First Meetings

The French and the Timucua exchanged gifts when they met.

Look at the exhibit to see which gifts were exchanged.

Draw the ends of the arrows to point to either the French or the Timucua, showing who gave what to whom.

Example:

Red Feathers French <----- Timucua

(The Timucua gave red feathers to the French as a gift.)

Mirrors French ----- Timucua

Baskets French ----- Timucua

Tools French ----- Timucua

Metal Bracelets French ----- Timucua

Painted Hides French ----- Timucua

KP Plantation Crops

Many crops were grown on the island during plantation times. What have you worn or eaten today that was made from cotton, corn or sugar cane?

◆ Crop (check one):

COTTON

CORN

SUGAR

◆ Item: _____

NEXT – Draw a picture of the main cash crop (crop that was sold for money) on the plantation.

Hints:

It's soft and fluffy, but it can hurt when you pick it!

Ask a ranger to show you an example of this crop.

What is this crop? _____
