Wrangell-St. Elias National Park/Preserve News Release

-A DAY OF CELEBRATION-

On Saturday, September 26th, we will be celebrating America's Best Idea with an interpretive program titled: "Behind The Scenery of Wrangell-St. Elias National Park and Preserve – An In-depth Look at America's Largest National Park" with Interpretive Ranger Neil Hannan. Program times are 11:15am, 1:15pm and 3:15pm at the Park Visitor Center. In celebration of our park volunteers, a one hour preview of the Ken Burn's Documentary, "The National Parks: America's Best Idea" will be showing at 10:00am, 12:00pm and 2:00pm. Glenn Hart, Education Specialist/Interpretation, will be giving a short presentation on the parks volunteer program throughout the day.

Please help us make America's Best Idea even better. Join us for a national day of service and celebration in your 391 national parks.

Refreshments will be provided at the Park Visitor Center.
