Location: 61.027, -141.631

Refer to USGS maps-McCarthy 1:250,000; McCarthy 1:63,360 (A-2)

Reservations: No reservations are required. Available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Access: By air at a 900' long airstrip. Cabin is located on the upper Chitina River and is situated on an alluvial plain.

Description: Rustic Cabin, 15' X 16'. Sleeps up to 2 people. Includes 2 standard twin-size wooden bunks, a wood stove, fire extinguisher, informational bulletin board and a pit toilet. Water is available from local hillside creeks but must be treated.

This cabin is nestled in a glacial valley on the upper Chitina River, surrounded by mixed spruce forest. Hiking opportunities exist, and this can be a starting point for river trips. There are numerous bugs; headnets are highly recommended during the months of July and August. Obtain firewood only from dead and downed wood.

You must bring all personal belongings that you will require, including sleeping and dining equipment. Please leave cabins cleaner than when you arrived. Replenish any firewood stored in the cabins for the next user. Please do not remove or relocate any artifacts or deface these historic buildings.

Airstrip: Very rough gravel airstrip 900' long. No FAA identifier.
