Location: N61.455, W142.375

Refer to USGS maps, McCarthy 1:250,000; McCarthy 1:63,360 (B-4)

Reservations: Required. Please call (907) 822-7401 during summer and (907) 822-5234 during winter. Reservations can be made six months in advance of your first night of stay. The maximum stay in the cabin is 7 days in a 30 day period without a permit.

Access: Accessible by airstrip. This cabin is situated 18 miles east of McCarthy, about 1/2 mile south of the Chitistone River.

Description: The Glacier Creek cabin is 8 feet by 10 feet in size and contains a woodstove, 2 standard twin-size wooden bunks, fire extinguisher, informational bulletin board, and pit toilet. Water is available from Glacier Creek or the Chitistone River but must be treated and allowed to settle. Cabin is situated in an extremely scenic area surrounded by towering cliffs and sparkling glaciers. It offers excellent opportunities for hiking up Glacier Creek, the Chitistone River, or Toby Creek. There are numerous bugs; headnets are strongly encouraged during June, July, and August. Obtain firewood from dead and downed wood.

You must bring all personal belongings that you will require, including sleeping and dining equipment. Please leave cabins cleaner than when you arrived. Replenish any firewood stored in the cabins for the next user. Please do not remove or relocate any artifacts or deface these historic buildings.
