RE: Pepperell Center Historic District, Pepperell (Middlesex County), Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Loether:

We have recently digitized the above referenced National Register nomination (listed on 8/5/1994). In the course of digitizing, several technical errors and inconsistencies were discovered, which we would like to correct. We are writing, therefore, to request the following technical corrections be made to the nomination:

- The building at 13 Heald Street (ca. 1975) has been removed from the district datasheets because it is a nonhistoric building that was not within the boundary of the district map and was not intended as part of the district. The boundary crosses a line of convenience at the parcel (assessor's map 20, parcel 9).
- The boundary has been redrawn to include a portion of Corporation Cemetery that had been inadvertently omitted. The corrected map now follows the lot line shown on the assessor's map as parcel 16 on map 21 and includes the cemetery in its entirety.
- The boundary map has been redrawn to exclude the properties at 30 and 33 Townsend Street (map 20, parcels 59 and 41, respectively) because they were not on the district data sheet, they are outside the period of significance for the district, and they were not intended as part of the district.

These changes reduce the number of noncontributing resources to 40. Enclosed are revised cover sheets (2 pages), a revised district map, and a revised page 2 of the district data sheets (out of eight total).

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Betsy Friedberg
National Register Director
