ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION ONLY

Dear Mr. Tobias:

Reference: NPS-2020-01037

Subject: Response to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated July 2, 2020, in which you requested emails sent or received by David Vela since June 15, 2020, that reference in anyway the statue of General Albert Pike in Washington, D.C.

Upon further review, your request is granted in part and denied in part. We located 9 documents, totaling sixty pages, which were responsive to your request. However, portions of approximately eleven pages are being withheld under Exemption 6, while portions of approximately 8 pages are being withheld under Exemption 7(C). Exemption 6 of the FOIA allows us to withhold information that would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7(C) allows us to withhold information from law enforcement files that could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

In this case the individuals concerned have significant privacy interests in withholding the information you have requested. Accordingly, we have determined that releasing the redacted or withheld information, which includes the names of and contact information for specific US Park Police officers and other NPS employees could cause the concerned individual(s) embarrassment, subject them to annoyance, or lead to harassment stemming from their actual or perceived involvement in responding to events that occurred in or around Lafayette Square on or about June 1, 2020. Additionally, your request failed to demonstrate how the public's interest would be served by releasing the information you have requested. We have therefore concluded that the threat to the privacy of the individuals concerned is greater than whatever public interest there might be in releasing the requested information. We are therefore withholding it under Exemptions 6 and 7(C).

We are also withholding portions of approximately 29 pages under Exemption 5, which allows an agency to withhold "inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party ... in litigation with the agency." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). Exemption 5 therefore incorporates the privileges that protect materials from discovery in litigation, including the deliberative process privilege.

Deliberative Process Privilege

The deliberative process privilege protects the decision-making process of government agencies and encourages the frank exchange of ideas on legal or policy matters by ensuring agencies are not forced to operate in a fish bowl. A number of policy purposes have been attributed to the deliberative process privilege, such as: (1) assuring that subordinates will feel free to provide the decisionmaker with their uninhibited opinions and recommendations; (2) protecting against premature disclosure of proposed policies; and (3) protecting against confusing the issues and misleading the public.

The deliberative process privilege protects materials that are both predecisional and deliberative. The privilege covers records that reflect the give-and-take of the consultative process and may include recommendations, draft documents, proposals, suggestions, and other subjective documents which reflect the personal opinions of the writer rather than the policy of the agency.

The materials that have been withheld under the deliberative process privilege of Exemption 5 are both predecisional and deliberative. They do not contain or represent formal or informal agency policies or decisions. They are the result of frank and open discussions among employees of the Department of the Interior. Their contents have been held confidential by all parties and public dissemination of this information would the release of these drafts would have a chilling effect on the agency's deliberative processes and could negatively impact the ability of the National Park Service and the US Park Police to respond to similar events in the future, including presenting a risk to circumvention of the law.

Additionally, portions of approximately 29 pages are being withheld under Exemption 7(A) as we have determined that the release of the information could not only harm future enforcement proceedings stemming from events that occurred on or around June 1, 2020, but also could harm the ability of the US Park Police to respond to similar events in the future, because it could:

- Afford a virtual roadmap through the government's evidence.
- Prematurely reveal the full scope of the evidence that has been obtained to date.
- Hinder the NPS's ability to further control and shape the investigation
- Could expose actual or prospective witnesses to undue influence or retaliation.

We have also withheld portions of one page under Exemption 7(E), which allows us to withhold information relating to law enforcement techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions that if released could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law. The information being withheld consists of a phone number and email address that are used by the US Park Police's counter terrorism bureau.

Lastly, we are withholding portions of approximately 29 pages under Exemption 7(F), which protects law enforcement records if their release could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual. For the materials that have been withheld under 7(F), we have determined releasing them could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of both US Park Police personnel and others involved in the response to events that occurred on or about June 1, 2020. and similar events in the future.

Pursuant to regulation, 43 CFR 2.24(b) the following person is responsible for this denial:

Charis Wilson
NPS FOIA Officer

Additionally, the following attorney was consulted during the preparation of this response:

Jason Waanders, Attorney-Advisor, Office of the Solicitor
U.S. Department of the Interior, Philadelphia, PA

You have the right to appeal this denial of your request. You may file an appeal by writing to:

Freedom of Information Act Appeals Officer
Office of the Solicitor
U.S. Department of the Interior
1849 C Street, NW
MS-6556-MIB,
Washington, D.C. 20240
foia.appeals@sol.doi.gov

Your appeal must be received no later than 90 workdays after the date of this final response. The appeal should be marked, both on the envelope and the face of the appeal letter, with the legend "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL." Your appeal should be accompanied by a copy of your original request and copies of all correspondence between yourself and the National Park Service related to this request, along with any information you have which leads you to believe the records are available, including where they might be found, if the location is known to you. Please note, appeals received after 5 p.m. EST will be considered to have been received as of the following day.

Also as part of the 2007 OPEN Government Act FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a nonexclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:

Office of Government Information Services (OGIS)
National Archives and Records Administration
Room 2510
8601 Adelphi Road
College Park, MD 20740-6001
E-mail: ogis@nara.gov
Phone: 301-837-1996
Fax: 301-837-0348
Toll-free: 1-877-684-6448

Additionally, because the National Park Service creates and maintains law enforcement records, we are required by the Department of Justice to provide the following information, even though it may or may not apply to your specific request. Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that we are required to give all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

Please do not hesitate to contact me, as the person processing your request, with any further questions or concerns. I can be reached at the address above or by phone at 303-969-2959. I can also be reached via e-mail at charis_wilson@nps.gov. Contact information for the Department's FOIA Public Liaison, who you may also seek dispute resolution services from, is available at <https://www.doi.gov/foia/foiacenters>.

Sincerely,

Charis Wilson
NPS FOIA Officer

Hi Folks,

Thanks for the narrative, and I took out some of the background info and made some minor format changes to include making this a draft document as it provides a basis for discussion through the corridors. Nice job, and send it down the hall.

Have a great day.

Trump says he's signed a 'strong' order to protect monuments

By ASHRAF KHALIL

The base of the statue of former president Andrew Jackson is power washed inside a newly closed Lafayette Park, Wednesday,

June 24, 2020, in Washington, which has been the site of protests over the death of George Floyd, a black man who was in police custody in Minneapolis. Floyd died after being restrained by Minneapolis police officers. (AP Photo/Jacquelyn Martin)

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Donald Trump used Twitter on Friday to call for the arrest of protesters involved in this week's attempt to pull down the statue of Andrew Jackson from a park directly in front of the White House. He also tweeted that he had signed an executive order to protect monuments, memorials and statues.

Trump retweeted an FBI wanted poster showing pictures of 15 protesters who are wanted for "vandalization of federal property."

He wrote, "MANY people in custody, with many others being sought for Vandalization of Federal Property in Lafayette Park. 10 year prison sentences!"

Trump later Friday announced his executive order, which he had promised earlier in the week. He described it as "strong" but did not immediately release the text.

He also said on Twitter that he had scrapped plans to spend the weekend at his central New Jersey home to stay in Washington "to make sure LAW & ORDER is enforced."

"These arsonists, anarchists, looters, and agitators have been largely stopped," Trump tweeted. "I am doing what is necessary to keep our communities safe — and these people will be brought to Justice!"

Protesters on Monday night attempted to drag the statue down with ropes and chains. Police repelled the protesters and sealed off Lafayette Park, which had been reopened to the public for more than a week after protests against the death of George Floyd at police hands in Minnesota. On Tuesday, police cleared out the entire area around the corner of 16th and H streets — and pushed demonstrators away from the intersection, which had recently been renamed Black Lives Matter Plaza by the city.

Statistics released by the Metropolitan Police Department show that nine people were arrested Tuesday night and a total of 12 arrested between Monday and Wednesday. There were no protest-related arrests on Thursday, according to the MPD data.

Demonstrators have grown increasingly emboldened about targeting statues deemed offensive or inappropriate. Last week on June 19, or Juneteenth, the day marking the end of slavery in the United States, cheering crowds pulled down a statue of former Confederate general Albert Pike. The statue stood on federal land and had withstood previous attempts by the Washington, D.C., government to remove it. According to participants, police officers were on the scene but did not attempt to interfere.

The targeting of the statues has become a rallying cry for Trump and other conservatives. Immediately after the Pike statue was toppled and set ablaze, Trump called the incident a "disgrace to our Country!" on Twitter.

On Tuesday he tweeted, "I have authorized the Federal Government to arrest anyone who vandalizes or destroys any monument, statue or other such Federal property in the U.S. with up to 10 years in prison, per the Veteran's Memorial Preservation Act, or such other laws that may be pertinent."
