

African Burial Ground

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

National Monument

Tuesday June 20, 2017

Dr. Dorothy Irene Height Special Stamp Dedication Ceremony 11:00-2:00 PM

Join the National Park Service, in collaboration with Black Women's Leadership Caucus, Inc., United States Postal Service (USPS) and the Ebony Society of Philatelic Events and Reflections (ESPER) at the African Burial Ground National Monument for a special dedication of the Dr. Dorothy Irene Height Stamp. Our celebration, beginning at 11:00 AM, will conclude with the sale of stamps.

Night at the Museums 4:00-8:00 PM

Join African Burial Ground National Monument and 14 other museums and historic landmarks within walking distance of each other, as we remain open into the evening to take part in Lower Manhattan Cultural Council's (LMCC) River to River Festival 2017. The annual event takes place rain or shine.

4PM – Drum and Dance Performance by Fusha Dance Company

Twitter: @AfBurialGrndNPS
Facebook.com/AfricanBurialGround
#MUSEUMNIGHTLM

Schedule is subject to change. All activities are free and open to the public, however space is limited.

Plan Your Visit

All activities will take place at African Burial Ground National Monument. The visitor center is located on the first floor of 290 Broadway in Lower Manhattan.

African Burial Ground National Monument visitor center is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10 am to 4 pm. The memorial is currently closed to ensure visitor safety and to facilitate façade repairs on the adjoining 290 Broadway. The visitor center is closed on Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.

For more information:
Telephone: (212) 637-2019
Website: www.nps.gov/afbg