

My most memorable experiences was sighting four Japanese ships about 400 miles off Attu in July the 10th, 1943. They wouldn't let us bomb 'em. They sent another crew out that sank two of the ships, the other two ships got away.