

150th Anniversary Programs 2015

NPS/Chris Barr

Join us for the final year of programs commemorating the 150th anniversary of Andersonville Prison.

Program Calendar

- January 3:* First Saturday Programs
- January 24:* Night Museum
- February 7:* First Saturday Programs
- March 7:* First Saturday Programs
- March 14-15:* Living History Weekend
- April 4:* First Saturday Programs
- April 11:* Park Day
- May 2:* First Saturday Programs
- May 24:* Memorial Day Observance
- June 6:* First Saturday Programs
- July 4:* First Saturday Programs
- August 1:* First Saturday Programs
- September 5:* First Saturday Programs
- September 10-13:* The Andersonville Trial
at the Rylander Theater
- September 18-19:* Memorial Illumination
- September 19:* Funeral for Thirteen Thousand
- November 7:* First Saturday Programs
- November 14:* Night Museum
- December 5:* First Saturday Programs
- December 12:* Wreaths Across America

Signature Programs September 18-20, 2015

Memorial Illumination

On Friday and Saturday night, 13,000 luminaries will be placed on the prison site; each representing the death of a United States soldier at Andersonville.

Funeral for Thirteen Thousand

On Saturday, Andersonville National Cemetery will host a ceremony to remember the nearly 13,000 American soldiers who died while held captive at Andersonville prison. This service will be the funeral they never received.

For more information about the 150th Anniversary commemoration of Andersonville Prison, please visit: <http://go.nps.gov/cwprisons>

 Find us on Facebook
facebook.com/AndersonvilleNPS

 @andeNHS