

150th Anniversary Events September 5-20, 2015

Guest Speakers - Kid's Activities - Free Events - Community Canned Food Drive

Saturday, September 5: First Saturday Program

Guest Speaker is Mark Hale portraying Father Peter Whelan

September 10-13: "The Andersonville Trial"

A play by Saul Levitt, produced by Sumter Players Inc. with support by The Friends of Andersonville. Rylander Theatre in Americus, GA

Information at www.SumterPlayers.org - Tickets Available from www.Rylander.org

Wednesday, September 16: GSW Convocation Ceremony

Guest Speaker is former POW Retired Brig. Gen. Rhonda Cornum
11am, Jackson Hall - Georgia Southwestern State University

Friday, September 18: National POW/MIA Recognition Day

Join us at the park for a series of special programs.

10am - 150th Anniversary Opening Ceremony
Held at the Andersonville National Cemetery

11am-5:30pm - Park Programs

7pm-10pm - Memorial Illumination
Prison loop road will be open to vehicles.
Cemetery and museum will be closed.

Saturday, September 19: "Funeral for 13,000"

9am-5:30pm - Park Programs

10am - Wreath Ceremony

12:45pm - "Funeral for 13,000"
Andersonville NHS will host a ceremony to remember the nearly 13,000 American soldiers who died while held captive at Andersonville prison during the Civil War.
Guest Speaker is Sergeant Major of the Army Daniel Dailey.

7pm-10pm - Memorial Illumination
Prison loop road will be open to vehicles.
Cemetery and museum will be closed.

Sunday, September 20: 150th Concluding Programs

9am-4:30pm - Park Programs

5pm - Closing Ceremony
Held at the National Prisoner of War Museum

For more information, please visit our Facebook page:
www.facebook.com/AndersonvilleNPS

