

MULTI-SITE FIELD TRIP IN APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA

Three field trips in one package!

For additional information or to book your trip, you may contact any of the threesites:

Appomattox Court House National Historical Park 434-352-8987 ext. 231
www.nps.gov/apco/index.htm

American Civil War Museum Museum of the Confederacy, Appomattox
434-352-5791 Ext 203 ACWM.org

Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center 434-248-5444 holidaylake4h.com

Field Trip Package available primarily on weekdays throughout the school year. Call today to schedule your trip!

Advantages of packaging:

- Students are exposed to cultural, earth and life with the Virginia Standards of Learning.
- Optimizes the time that can be spent at each location, maximizing the students' learning potential.
- Inexpensive meals and lodging option compared to traditional overnight trips.

Sample Itinerary

DAY 1

10:00- Arrive at NHP/Intro

10:05- 1st Station (McLean House) 10:30- 2nd Station (Parole Pass) 10:55- Stacking of

Arms

11:35- Lunch and Self Guided Tour 12:45- Depart for ACWM

1:00- Arrive at ACWM 1:10- Station 1 (Civilian Life)

1:35- Station 2 (Medicine in C.W.)

2:00- Station 3 (Guided Gallery Tour) 2:25- Gift Shop/Gallery Exploration 3:15- Depart for 4-H Center

3:45- Arrive at 4-H Center/Move in 4:45- Orientation

5:30- Dinner at 4-H Center/Recreation 6:45- Night Class 1 (Sensory Awareness*)

7:50- Night Class 2 (Night Hike*)

9:00- Cabin time/showers

10:00- Lights Out

DAY 2

8:00- Breakfast at 4-H Center 9:00- Class 3 (Aquatic Ecology*)

10:00- Class 4 (Soil Studies*)

11:00- Class 5 (Herpetology*) 12:00- Lunch at 4-H Center 1:00- Depart for Home

For three meals, lodging, and programming:

Students: $55.00

Chaperones: $34.00

Teachers (1 per 10 students): free

Please note that the classes in the sample itinerary are examples. Class choices are left up to the group leader/ coordinator to best fit the students' needs. Class choices and Teacher Packets can be found through each of the three partners' websites.

Students experience engaging, hands-on classes at each location!

Above-left: Students use nets to catch macro-invertebrates during Aquatic Ecology at the 4-H Center; above-right: Students participate in Stacking of the Arms at Appomattox Court House National Historic Park.

On the left: Students perform water quality tests at the 4-H Center. Below: Students explore what kinds of things Civil War soldiers carried with them at the ACWM

Class choices at the 4-H Center

Herpetology

Aquatic Ecology

Soil Studies

Water Chemistry

Meteorology

Wildlife Ecology

Building

Forest Ecology

Night Hike

Mammalogy

Pioneer Life

Ornithology

Entomology Sensory Awareness

Orienteering Native American Studies

Geology Team