

Coasting Along With Sea Level Change

Bayocean - lost to the sea circa 1952

Reconstruction of Oregon coastline approximately

15,000 years ago

10,000 years ago

5,000 years ago

current coastline

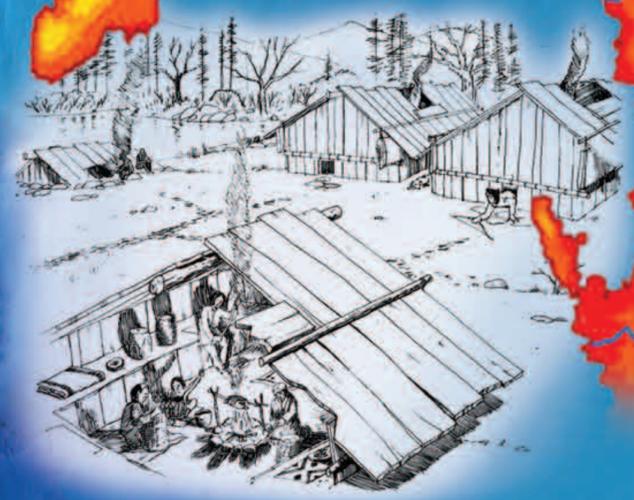

Oregon Archaeology Celebration

October

2011

Map Area

Possible location of past Native American plank houses

For a Calendar of Events - www.oregonheritage.org

Sponsors: Applied Archaeological Research, Inc. • Association of Oregon Archaeologists • Ray and Jean Auel • Center for Ancient Studies and Archaeology, Willamette University • Flying Toad Graphics • Institute for Archaeological Studies • Oregon Archaeological Society • Oregon Department of Transportation • Oregon State Historic Preservation Office • R. B. Pamplin Corporation • The Traveling Museum of Oregon Prehistory • University of Oregon Museum of Natural and Cultural History • USDA Forest Service • USDI Bureau of Land Management • USDI Fish and Wildlife Service • Walton Enterprises

This project is supported in part by a grant from the Heritage Programs, Oregon Parks and Recreation Department.

Special thanks to Dr. Chris Goldfinger of Oregon State University for the bathymetry imagery, Steven Jenevein for the paleocoastline imagery and Kirstin Grace-Simons and Tim Jacobsson for their graphic artwork.

Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the U.S. Department of Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, age, national origin, sex, or handicap in its federally assisted programs. If you believe you have been discriminated against in any program, activity or facility operated by a recipient of federal assistance, or if you desire further information, please write to: Office for Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of the Interior, PO Box 37127, Washington, D.C. 20013. The activity that is the subject of the publication has been financed in part with Federal funds from the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, as provided through the Oregon State Historic Preservation Office. However, the contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Department of the Interior, nor does the mention of trade names of commercial products constitute endorsement or recommendations by the Department of the Interior.