

AZTEC RUINS SUMMER LECTURE SERIES 2012

7:00 to 8:30 pm

AZTEC RUINS VISITOR CENTER

FREE ADMISSION

MAY THROUGH JUNE 2012

May 19 (Saturday): 20th Century Punch Line: The Resilience of the Navajos and their Language, Larry King, local Navajo linguist, Farmington, NM.

June 1 (Friday): The Ancient "Roads" of Chaco and the Four Corners Region: New Visions of the Past through the use of Geospatial Information Sciences, Rich Friedman, GIS Specialist, Farmington, NM.

June 8 (Friday): Photographic Archaeology: New Insights from Earl Morris' Excavation Photos at Aztec Ruins, Erin Baxter, BA, MA, University of Colorado, Boulder, CO.

June 15 (Friday): Evening East Ruin Tour, Ranger-guided tour during the cooler evening hours through an unexcavated portion of the monument.

June 22 (Friday): Chaco's Great Houses: Evolving Interpretations, David Grant Noble, author, photographer, scholar of the Southwest, Santa Fe, NM.

June 29 (Friday): The Transition from Chacoan Colony to Central Place in the San Juan Region, Gary Brown, Archeologist/Chief of Cultural Resources, Aztec Ruins National Monument, Aztec, NM

For more information call 505-334-6174 or check Schedule of Events at www.nps.gov/azru

Look for new postings as the Series continues.

Presented in partnership with:

